

is expected to continue for more than seven days, which is the grace period prescribed under the terms